HOW DOES IT WORK?

The Train More for Less Program

More resources with less hassle— for less!

It's easy. The Train More for Less Program simplifies your training from one end to the other.

With your license, you get:

- Unlimited use of all materials covering most soft skills competencies
- Unlimited sites
- The ability to customize
- No upgrade fees
- No additional items to purchase
- Hundreds of products—assessments, workbooks, resource materials, you name it—all available when you need them, 24/7, to meet the changing demands of your workplace
- Expert training support
- On-site training sessions

Put an end to budget constraints, time drainers, dealing with difficult vendors, keeping track of all their demands, all their invoices, all their certification requirements. Simplify—so you can focus on what matters.

Are you dealing with supervisors/managers who are falling short but you are not sure where?

Use our unique video-based Managerial Assessment of Proficiency to identify gaps, then close those gaps with training that surgically builds the competencies managers need.

Is communication shutting down because of conflict?

Take a look at our Dealing with Conflict Workshop to help your team members understand how to handle conflict in a positive way, so they can get back to being productive.

Can your training department rise to greatness with the right resources and extra time?

There's whole program curriculums or just the right activity you might need. You'll never be without training solution options again and you'll have more time than ever to focus on what matters most.
